

What if I change my hair color and want to change my brow color?

The color can be changed somewhat by blending another color over the original if you should change your mind at a later date. But color usually goes with your skin & eyes.