

Is it advisable to have a consultation before the procedure?

Only if you still have questions or want to learn more about the procedure. It is not necessary.